

VOLUNTEERING POLICY

Date Approved: 10th January 2022
To be reviewed: October 2022

Introduction

This policy sets out the principles for voluntary involvement within FOWS. It is relevant to all within the association and is endorsed by the committee (or volunteers) of FOWS.

Commitment

FOWS acknowledges the contribution made by its volunteers and is committed to involving volunteers in appropriate positions and in ways that are encouraging and supportive. The organisation also recognises its responsibility to arrange volunteering efficiently so that the volunteer's time is best used to the mutual advantage of all concerned.

Definition

A volunteer is a person who, unpaid & of their own free will, contributes their time, energy and skills to benefit FOWS.

Volunteer Co-ordination

All volunteers should report to the FOWS committee, who will offer guidance and support to the volunteer so they may carry out task effectively. Volunteers may be given an individual name of a committee member to report to.

The nominated committee member with overall responsibility for volunteering within the association is Becky Chatfield. (Trustee & Ordinary Committee Member)

Volunteers will have a clear and concise task description, will be properly briefed about the activities to be undertaken and be given all necessary information and equipment to enable them to complete the activities.

It is the volunteer's responsibility to ensure they understand the task they have been given and to raise any concerns or training needs before undertaking any activity
